Bringing your dog to Boston Canine & Boston K9 Day Care has many rewards

Housebreaking:

Dog daycare can facilitate housebreaking by being in a supervised environment throughout the day and being given scheduled walks, rather than being at home where they are in a crate all day or have accidents if you don't get home in time.

overweight dogs can be given an extra workout to shed those extra pounds.

Bad Weather:

Don't want to walk your dog in the rain or snow? Bring them to doggie daycare; they will still get the exercise they need with out getting soaked in the rain or snow.

Special Attention:

If your dog is in need of medication/ointments or in need of supervised confinement. Special arrangements can be made.

Socialization: Dogs are social animals. They will interact with other friendly dogs and people during the day.

Busy Household:

Remodeling, moving, shopping, or getting ready for a party or vacation? Dog daycare can keep your dog busy when you need them out of the house.

Housing issues:

Dog daycare could make it easier to locate pet allowable housing when you specify that your dog will attend daycare during the day while you are at work- allaying landlord fears of neighbors complaining about barking, destruction or house soiling.
